

Headteacher required London East Academy and Al Mizan Primary School

Start date: 1 September 2022

Salary: £49,132 – £57,875 per annum (ELMT scale I1–I12)

Are you an enthusiastic, child-centred and an aspirational leader, committed to inspiring and supporting pupils, staff and the wider school community to build on the successes of our schools?

What you will bring to our school:

- The experience and ability to lead, inspire and challenge a skilled and committed staff team to deliver outstanding outcomes for the children at London East Academy and Al Mizan Primary School
- Experience of headship or deputy headship or equivalent in experience
- Experience of teaching in the mainstream system beyond school teaching practise
- Commitment to promoting the vision and Islamic values of the school so that all feel valued as individuals and can contribute to creating a community who honour all people.
- Commitment to developing your own professional and Islamic self-development: a strong combination of Imaan, Taqwa, Competence (ITC)
- A salary reflecting both your experience and the size of the school

In return, we can offer you:

- A great opportunity to lead dynamic and diverse schools from Primary to Secondary;
- Pupils with positive attitudes to learning, who are hardworking, caring, and proud to attend their schools;
- The support of dedicated and caring school colleagues and a governing body who are committed to delivering the very best for pupils;
